Adjutant - General Ainsworth Points Out Causes of Growing Evil.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 17.—
Continued extensive desertions in the United States Army during the last fiscal year forms the leading feature of the annual report of Adjutant-General Ainsworth. After showing that 4,993 men deserted from the enlisted force of the regular army. General Ainsworth concludes that only a strict enforcement of severe searching with the strict betting instantly.

Delivers Instructive Lecture to Citisens of Washington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, N. C., November 17.

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Department, made a very interesting and instructive lecture to the citizens of Washington in the public school auditorium last evening. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Woman's Betterment Association of this city, and the subject was the hookworm and the ravages it is making on the people of the South. Dr. Stiles has spent eleven years at the study of this disease, and is a recognized authority Yesterday afternoon Dr. Stiles lectured to the different physicians of the city on the same subject, giving a more exhaustive study of the disease, from a medical standpoint, and the best remedies for this disease.
